

Eric's Heritage tips of the month

Tip #4: Coping with mildew in historic books

- Historic books and magazines stored in damp locations often are contaminated by mildew
- Insert dry book in a large zip-lock bag
- Add baking soda to the bag and between the pages of the book
- Put the package in a deep-freeze for several weeks
- Remove from the bag, shake out the soda
- Repeat if necessary

